

Why do people in our community not seek early treatment?

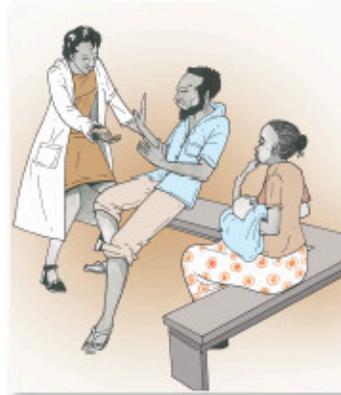

Ignoring important information

Fearing modern medicine

Lacking confidence in modern medicine

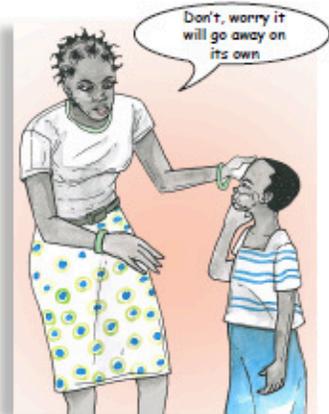

Lacking nearby health services

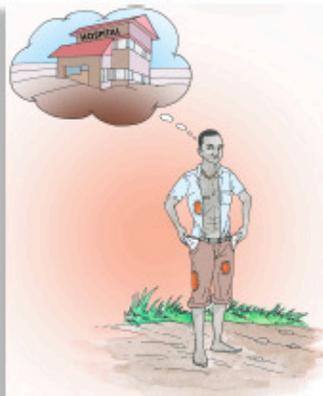

Being unable to read information

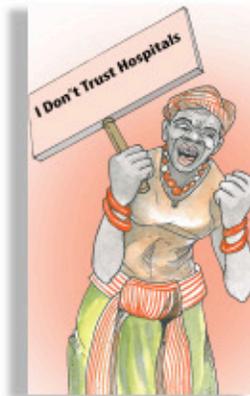

Thinking that cancer can cure on its own

Worrying about not having enough money

Propaganda about hospitals

Having too much confidence in traditional medicine

Abundance of traditional medicine

